

Presented by The Literacy Cooperative

Free books for children under age 5 are available in our community from The Literacy Cooperative and the Ohio Governor's Imagination Library!

This wonderful book gifting program, created by Dolly Parton, mails free, new, age appropriate, high quality books to registered children's homes from birth until they turn 5.

Parents of children age 4 ½ years old and younger can enroll online at www.literacycooperative.org. Books arrive eight to ten weeks after registering. There is no cost or obligation to the child's family. It truly is a FREE GIFT!

According to the National Commission on Reading, the single most important factor influencing a child's early educational success is an introduction to books and being read to at home before starting school. As a parent or caregiver, snuggling up and reading daily with your child is one of the most important actions you can take to help set them up for future success.

You can help build stronger brains and promote a love of books and reading among children in our community by spreading the word about this beneficial program. Follow us on social media at @literacycoop, or simply tell your friends!

Note: The Literacy Cooperative manages the program in Cuyahoga County and Wickliffe where it is available to every young child under age 5; the program is also available in other Ohio counties (check online at www.ohioimaginationlibrary.com for availability).
